The Cultural Impact of E-Learning and Intranets on Corporate Employees," by David Guralnick and Deb Larson.

In Connected Minds, Emerging Cultures, edited by Steve Wheeler;
December 2008.

In corporations, however,
the shift to e-learning has emphasized
controlling employees
by force-feeding them courses and
information,
as well as tracking their training.

Learning management systems and page-
turning courses predominate,
complemented by an avalanche of online information, little of which is structured or written to help employees work successfully. Thus, employees have come to perceive e-learning as a necessary evil at work: dehumanizing, rather than humanizing; limiting, rather than liberating.

Gearing up for the ETAA

Dec 15, 2021 — by robert lewis in etaa
Here's the breakdown of what's on the test, and this website.

The Layups: Numeric Sequences

Dec 3, 2022 — by robert lewis in etaa
You can learn enough by the end of this week to get all of these math items correct.

Bread & Butter: Plug-in PEMDAS

Dec 4, 2023 — by robert lewis in etaa
There are more of this math item than any other on the Entrance Exam. So study up!

The Vein Poppers: Linear Equations

Dec 25, 2023 — by robert lewis in etaa
If you don't know what you're doing, this math item will drive you crazy. But if you do, they're easy!

Variable Flip

Dec 26, 2023 — by robert lewis in etaa
I call this "reverse PEMDAS," because you +-, then x/, then exponent, then ().

Dimensional Analysis

Dec 29, 2023 — by robert lewis in etaa
Will voltage increase or decrease when a circuit rusts out?

Stock runs

Apr 27, 2025 — by Robert Lewis in comp
Tonight is about how computers affect today's culture.

Lights, camera, action!

Apr 24, 2025 — by Robert Lewis in comp
Let's make an animated post this class.

Egg hunt!

Apr 15, 2025 — by Robert Lewis in comp
"Googling" is ubiquitous. But that search engine is not the end-all. Let's look at some alternative search engines.

Odds & Ends

Apr 14, 2025 — by Robert Lewis in comp
Today, I'm trying to finish up some old lessons, and get ready for the "final lap" for this course.

Living like a pirate.

Apr 3, 2025 — by Robert Lewis in comp
This class will be something like art therapy, where we use digital media to express a deep thought we may have.

The rise of AI chatboxes

Mar 27, 2025 — by Robert Lewis in comp
We've looked at image generators, but let's turn now to what started the current craze for AI: the chatbot.

Summary & submit

"We are too prone to make technological instruments the scapegoats for the crimes of those who wield them. The products of modern science are not in themselves good or bad; it is the way they are used that determines their value."

David Sarnoff

As an educator, you play a crucial role in shaping the learning experiences of your students. By using ChatGPT, you can create more engaging and interactive lessons, personalize feedback to students and optimize your workflow. Additionally, this course will help you navigate ethical issues surrounding the use of artificial intelligence in education and develop strategies for promoting responsible use of ChatGPT.

1. Understand the capabilities and limitations of ChatGPT as a language model for education.
2. Develop practical skills in writing prompts that are optimized for ChatGPT-generated responses.
3. Explore ways to integrate ChatGPT into teaching and learning
4. Learn about ethical considerations related to the use of ChatGPT in education, including privacy, bias, and transparency
